

Email Monks

Thank you for being a part of Email Monks' Monastery. We are confident that our markup will be as per your HTML email needs.

You can even contact us via email (hello@emailmonks.com) and we will do our best to help you out.

The package includes :

- One documentation file (the one you are reading at present)
- One HTML file (index.html) and one image folder
- This HTML has been tested with almost all email native clients and it is well versed and compatible with them.
- Below is the litmus report for this markup which would help you built a confidence factor on how it will look in all email clients.

Hope you have enjoyed dealing with Email Monks.
